The College Mace

A gift of the Class of 1984

The office of mace bearer is purely ceremonial, and derives from medieval times in England when an official — say the Lord of the Admiralty or the Chief Justice of the Court of Assizes — was taking office or opening his court and needed a bodyguard. Then the mace, a formidable weapon, was held ready to protect the person of the dignitary.

From the sixteenth century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office only, and is carried by a distinguished member of the faculty (preferably one who is entitled to wear a colorful academic gown). The mace bearer, who carries a mace in the procession immediately preceding the president both entering and leaving the ceremony, is not found in the majority of exercises, but does exist on the older campuses in the East.

At Cape Cod Community College, the mace bearer leads the whole procession.

The Academic Procession and Regalia

Much of what is being seen this evening has antecedents which date back several centuries to the medieval universities of Europe. The academic procession is one of the oldest traditions throughout the world.

In medieval times, the ordinary dress of the university scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of the cleric. He wore a long gown, and often in the cold weather he wore a cloak with a hood which could be pulled up over the head for cover and protection.

Although fashions have changed since the 16th century, the scholars of the post-medieval period retained the academic attire. Eventually the attire was prescribed by university statutes to distinguish the different faculties and degrees-of-learning. The bachelor, master, and doctor gowns differ stylistically in cut and decorative motif.

The colorful hoods, which indicate fields of learning and the institutions conferring the degree, were originally worn over the head, but during the 16th century, caps were adopted and the hood was draped over the shoulder. The origin of the cap, as part of the academic regalia, is uncertain. As under Roman Law, the slave was freed by being allowed to put on a cap, so at Oxford the cap of the M.A. was the sign of his independence.

A long tassel is attached to the middle point of the top of the cap to drape over the left edge of the mortar board. The tassel may be black, gold, or the color appropriate to the academic field of the wearer.

An intercollegiate code has been adopted to represent the different departments of learning and has set the standards for academic dress in the United States. The hoods are lined with the official colors of the college from which the wearer received his highest degree, while the collar of the hood denotes the academic subject area in which the wearer majored. These colors are assigned according to the following scheme:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Arts, Letters & Humanities	White	Music	Pink
Business Administration	Drab	Nursing	Apricot
Dentistry	Lilac	Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Economics	Copper	Pharmacy	Olive Green
Education	Light Blue	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Engineering	Orange	Physical Education	Sage Green
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Forestry	Russet	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Home Economics	Maroon	Science	Gold-Yellow
Journalism	Crimson	Social Science	Citron
Law	Purple	Theology or Divinity	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon	Veterinary Science	Gray

Invocation and Benediction

Rabbi Harold L. Robinson has served the Cape Cod Synagogue congregation for eight years. He was ordained at Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati and previously served at Temple Israel in Gary, Indiana. Rabbi Robinson is past president of the Barnstable County Clergy Association, an auxiliary chaplain at Cape Cod Hospital and a chaplain in the United States Naval Reserve.

The Reverend Albert J. Ryan, associate pastor of St. Francis Xavier Roman Catholic Church, served several parishes in this diocese before coming to Hyannis two and a half years ago. A graduate of Catholic University of America, Fr. Ryan was formerly an Air Force chaplain, and is now chaplain for the Hyannis Fire Department and House of Correction.

Addresses to the Graduates

Jeffrey T. Krumrine, president of the Student Senate of Cape Cod Community College, has continued the role of excellence in that position so evident in recent years. A Cape Cod native who graduated from Bourne High School in 1979, he studied government and liberal arts courses at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst before enrolling at Cape Cod Community College, where he has taken business courses leading to his Associate in Science degree in Management. After a resort management position in coming months, he plans to attend the University of Massachusetts in Boston beginning in January, where he will major in public management. He has a future ambition of seeking political office after graduation at the state or national level.

Dr. Robert A. Corrigan, chancellor of the University of Massachusetts in Boston since 1979, is a national leader in the fields of urban education and American civilization. The New London, Connecticut, native, with degrees from Brown University and the University of Pennsylvania, has taught at the University of Maryland, Missouri, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Grinnell and Bryn Mawr Colleges and Sweden's University of Gothenburg. With a host of academic administrative titles, Dr. Corrigan remains close to his faculty and students as a professor of English. He has received many honors and awards — most recently from the State Department for lectures in Africa and Asia. He has thirty-three publications to his credit, has directed and sponsored eight summer institutes, still finding time to serve on fifteen local, state and national boards.

Music for the Graduates

Historically, pipers have led troops into battle while today colorful inspirational sounds provide pageantry leading the processional and recessional at a college commencement ceremony. Participants tonight were chosen from the Highland Light Scottish Pipe Band of Cape Cod — three pipes and tenor, bass and side drums. Attired in quasi-military garb, they are part of the local 20-piece unit in existence on Cape Cod about nine years.

The College Chorus is a long established campus institution drawing its membership from students, faculty, staff and the community. They rehearse twice weekly during each semester under the direction of Robert W. Kidd. They recently performed a choral fantasy on music from "Porgy and Bess" and sang at the New England Community and Junior College Chorus Festival.
